

Is the First Angel Ready to Sound the Trumpet Amid the UN's Warning about Global Boiling?

Sixbert SANGWA • May 21, 2024

In the current state of the world, we are witnessing unprecedented high temperatures that surpass anything previously recorded. As we delve into the topic of climate change and its potential connection to biblical prophecies, we must explore Revelation 8:7, which provides insight into what lies ahead as the end approaches and the trumpets begin to sound. Furthermore, the recent warning from the United Nations about the shift from global warming to global boiling demands our attention. In this article, we will examine the intriguing correlation between these events, the global geopolitical landscape, and the hidden plans orchestrated by a clandestine group, all while referencing relevant biblical verses and major climate-related catastrophes.

The Perilous Shift: From Global Warming to Global Boiling:

The UN's warning about soaring global temperatures, with July 2024 projected to be the hottest month on record, lend credence to the idea that we may be entering the prophesied "global boiling" phase. This terminology suggests a severe and irreversible stage of climate change, far beyond what we have previously encountered. Interestingly, these extreme temperature spikes are not attributed to natural climate cycles. While mainstream narratives attribute these changes to industrial pollution and greenhouse gas emissions, a closer examination reveals a more complex picture. Sources suggest such trends to be the result of a meticulously planned agenda orchestrated by a secret group of individuals. This group, often associated with the "New World Order" conspiracy theory, is believed to be using advanced technology to manipulate the climate and orchestrate global boiling.

The evidence points to the involvement of projects such as the European Council for Nuclear Research (CERN) and the High-frequency Active Auroral Research Program (HAARP) in manipulating the Earth's ionosphere and contributing to the global heating. For example:

- High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program (HAARP): This program, located in Alaska, is believed to be capable of manipulating the ionosphere, potentially influencing weather patterns.
- European Council for Nuclear Research (CERN): This organization, known for its research on particle physics, is also suspected of having the capability to manipulate the climate.

One of the most concerning theories is linked to Agenda 21, a comprehensive plan of action to be taken globally, nationally, and locally by organizations of the United Nations System, governments, and major groups in every area in which humans impact the environment. Critics argue that this agenda includes a covert plan to reduce the global population dramatically by 2050, often termed as vision 2050. Could the weather weapon be one of the tools?

The ionospheric research instruments are believed to be used to provoke ionospheric electricity, generating electromagnetic drops that are channeled to the Earth, thereby heating the planet and potentially causing various diseases. It is believed that the orchestrated global boiling is part of a "problem-reaction-solution" approach. By creating a global crisis, this group aims to justify the need for a one-world government, the Antichrist government prophesied in the Bible.

One might question how Africa, which hosts less than 4% of global industry, is disproportionately affected by the consequences of air pollution, casting doubt on the notion that these climate catastrophes are solely the result of human industrial activity. Definitely, the answer may attract our attention to the covert actions of such influential groups.

As we witness the devastating floods, intensifying heatwaves, and other climate-related catastrophes, it becomes increasingly apparent that these events correlate with the first trumpet recorded in Revelation 8:7. These cataclysms serve as a wake-up call, urging humanity to recognize the hidden forces at work and the imminent arrival of the end times. The global geopolitical landscape plays an integral role in this narrative, as it sets the stage for the establishment of a one-world government. The orchestrated crises serve as justification for the need for centralized control under the Antichrist's reign.

Amidst the chaos and confusion, it is crucial to acknowledge that not everyone will recognize or understand the true nature of these events. Those whose names are not written in the Book of Life will remain bewildered by the unfolding of these prophetic events, unknowingly amazed by the authority given to the beast by the dragon (Revelation 13:8). However, the wise, those who have been called and selected, will possess the knowledge to discern the true meaning behind these occurrences (Daniel 12:10).

In all, the warning from the United Nations about global boiling, the correlation between climate catastrophes and the first trumpet of Revelation, and the hidden agendas orchestrated behind the curtains all demand our attention. It is imperative that we stay vigilant, recognize the signs of the times, and seek the truth beyond what is presented to us. Only by understanding the broader context of these events can we navigate the challenges ahead and prepare ourselves for the unfolding of the end times. Let us remain steadfast, armed with knowledge, and rooted in our faith as we navigate this uncertain path towards the sounding of the trumpets.
